SHOPPING TOUR IN SEVILLE

DURATION: 3 H
LOCATION: AROUND TOWN CENTER OF SEVILLE

The main shopping area in the center are the two parallel streets Sierpes and Tetuan. Here you will find stores for just about everything: men's and women's clothing, shoes, ceramics, sporting goods, jewellery, posters and some of the general tourist stuff. The streets begin (or end) at Plaza Nueva/Plaza San Francisco where the "Ayuntamiento" (Town Hall) is located. From this direction you can head down Avenida Constitución to the cathedral. The other end of Sierpes and Tetuan leads to La Campana and Plaza del Duque, where El Corte Inglés is located. This shopping district also spills out into the side streets going towards the Alfalfa and a few streets towards the river. Sierpes and Tetuan are often the best places to find clothing for such brands at such stores as Zara. A large bookstore, appropriately named La Casa del Libro, is located on Tetuan sells about anything you could want including guidebooks, literature and fiction in English. Passing La Campana you can also head up Calle Laraña and find a few clothing and electronics stores

ANTIQUES

Antiques can be found in many shops throughout Seville. Although the shopkeepers may not think so, many are fun to use as informal museums. The type varies from a little of everything, to those specializing in paintings or furniture. There are three areas in Seville where you'll have the most luck:

The center

In the main shopping district around Calle Sierpes and Tetuan there are plenty of stores to choose from. Wandering down some of the side streets from Sierpes towards the Alfalfa you will find stores offering everything from furniture, ceramics, paintings and tapestries.

Alfalfa

The Alfalfa area also has a number of shops to choose from. Calle Cabeza del Don Pedro has a good selection of shops with antique furniture and art.
